What would your family do without your income?

Unum’s Term Life Insurance can help.

Better prepared for the future
Jarrod and Amy have two careers, two children, two day care payments and a two-story house on the lake. If either one dies prematurely, one paycheck won’t keep the family afloat. They have basic life insurance at work, but they want enough coverage to meet their actual needs.

Features with value
1. Adds more coverage at affordable group rates
   Your employer may offer basic term life, but it’s probably not enough for your needs. Buy more term life insurance at an affordable rate. If you leave your job, Unum will allow you to switch to an individual policy. Unum will bill you directly for the premium.

2. Requires no physical exam
   If you apply during your initial enrollment, you are guaranteed to receive a specific amount of coverage — your plan’s guaranteed issue amount — without taking a medical exam or answering any health-related questions.

What happens after you’re gone?
If a primary wage earner died:

34% of households would have immediate trouble paying everyday living expenses.

• 29% could cover everyday living expenses for only several months.

• Only 37% could cover everyday living expenses well into the future.

Term Life Insurance is offered to all eligible employees. Choose the benefit amount you need — up to your plan’s maximum.

Three reasons to buy this coverage at work — now

1. Once you buy coverage during the initial enrollment, you can add to it each year up to your plan’s guaranteed issue amount, without a medical exam or health questions.
2. You get affordable rates for you and your family. Premiums are conveniently deducted from your paycheck.
3. You can keep insurance coverage if you leave the company or retire, provided you aren’t seriously ill. You’re billed at home for your premium amount.

Benefits highlights you’ll appreciate:

Accelerated (early) benefit — If you become terminally ill with less than 12 months to live, you have access to part or all of your life benefit early, up to your plan’s maximum.

Life Planning Financial & Legal Resources — Financial planning and counseling are available to you or your family members at no extra cost if you are diagnosed with a terminal illness or die.
